EXPERTS WILL DISCUSS U. S. UNPREPAREDNESS

Defenselessness of Nation Will Be Theme of Speakers at Sessions of Navy League.

Why the United States need fear attack, and from what quarters, is to be explained for the benefit of the public by a score of the most eminent authorities on international law, military and naval science, statesmanship, business and commerce, at the national convention of the Navy League of the United States, to be held at the New Willard Hotel from Monday until Thursday of next week.

David Jayne Hill, Henry White, Albert Bushnell Hart, Franklin D. Roosevelt, S. Stanwood Menken, and Henry A. Wise Wood are a few of the notable men who are to address the gathering, which is described as the first organized effort on the part of any public or private body to determine what constitutes adequate military preparedness for this country.

About 1,000 delegates are expected to attend the convention, which will open in the grand ballroom of the Willard at 10 o'clock Monday morning. Col. Robert M. Thompson, president of the league, is bringing about 100 from California in special cars. From Chicago a special train is expected to bring a large party, including William Mather Lewis, mayor of Lake Forest, Illinois; Samuel Insull, and Ambrose Kramer. Parties will be brought from New Orleans by Benjamin T. Waldo, from Philadelphia by Alexander T. Rensselaer and others, from St. Louis by A. B. Lambert, and from Detroit by Henry B. Joy. More than 100 State and local branches of the league will be represented.

Speak in Eighth Street Temple.

Rev. Dr. Horace J. Wolf, of Rochester, New York, one of the most brilliant of the younger rabbis of the country, will preach in the Eighth Street Temple on Saturday morning, April 8.

Congressman Meyer London will address the Adult Bible Class of the Temple on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

$10.00 SUIT SALE
ATTRACTS EASTER BUYERS

Wide Range of Fabrics and Styles at This Price at Friedlander Bros., 428 Ninth Street.

Another business "scoop" has been registered by Friedlander Bros., 428 Ninth street northwest, in the purchase of a large shipment of fashionable Spring suits for men. Determined to establish beyond all doubt their leadership in bargain offerings, choice of these suits is offered at $10 each.

The styles in this lot embrace practically all of the season's latest fashion tendencies. Every fabric, every shade and every size is to be found among them. The thin man, the stout man, the short man, the tall man—every man, in fact, can find just the suit he wants.

To match these values elsewhere at the present time would cost from $5.00 to $10.00 more for each suit. That the patronage of this house will be quick to appreciate such extraordinary bargains is a foregone conclusion.

Grasp this opportunity, men, and buy your Easter suit now. If you delay, you'll probably be too late, as this entire lot will soon be exhausted.

Bear in mind the name—Friedlander Bros.—and the address—428 Ninth street northwest—the economy headquarters for the men of Washington.—Adv.

COL. GEORGE R. COLTON DEAD.
Former Governor of Porto Rico Succumbs to Illness Here.

Col. George R. Colton, governor of Porto Rico from 1909 to 1913, died Thursday night at the Walter Reed Army Hospital, to which he came several days ago from his home in Connecticut. He had been ill for several months.

Col. Colton was about 50 years old and was a native of Illinois. Prior to his appointment in the government service he was cashier of a bank at David City, Neb. At the outbreak of the Spanish-American war he was made lieutenant colonel of a volunteer regiment, and afterward entered the Customs Service in the Philippine Islands.

He is survived by two sons, Francis and George Colton, who are now in the Philippines, and two sisters, Mrs. Randall H. Hagner and Mrs. Archibald Davis, both of this city.
